READ TOGETHER

Psalm 8:1-4, Luke 1:43, Psalm 139:13-18

1. What do you enjoy about spending time with someone who loves you?
2. How did Elizabeth feel when Mary (and the unborn Jesus) visited her?
3. How does it make you feel knowing that the God of the universe sees, knows and loves you?

LIVE IT

God is more majestic and glorious than we can comprehend. He created the heavens and the earth (Genesis 1:1) and continuously sustains it (Hebrew 1:3). Even though He's that incredible, He still chooses to pursue a relationship with us, know us deeply, and think of us often (Psalm 139:13-18).

Elizabeth was humbled because Mary, the mother of Jesus, wanted to spend time with her. How much more humble should we be because God Himself wants to be in a relationship with us?

Take time to thank God for pursuing you. Consider ways you can take time to pursue your relationship with Him, especially in the busyness of the holiday season.

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

You're so big, I can't even wrap my mind around who You are. Yet You see, know and love me. You've sent Your Son Jesus so I might experience true life. Thank You for this incredible gift. Help me remember that You are for me, not against me. You are the most important relationship in my life.

In Jesus name,

Amen.
